Accompaniment program for family reunification

Program aimed at all foreign persons, who after some time of separation, initiate a process of re-encounter in the town of A Coruña.

Guidance and support is offered to interested people since months before the reunification takes place and is continued until after the family member arrives, through:

- Group sessions informing on legal, educational and social aspects and the relations linked to the process of family reunification.
 - Individual sessions offering orientation and help adapted to the necessities of each family.
 - Workshops for parents with practical information on the educational system, socio- educational resources and family conciliation as well as educational tools.
 - Workshops for women after being reunited. It is a space to grow together and develop a project for the future in A Coruña.
 - Workshops for young people, where they will meet other boys and girls recently arrived and discover the social and cultural resources of A Coruña.

- You have doubts about the administrative procedure of family reunification.
 - Your child has just arrived and you need information about the educational system, the recognition of his/her studies, reinforcement classes or leisure activities.
 - After some time of separation, you are reunited with your child and you are afraid of not being able to adapt to your new life in A Coruña.
 - Your partner just arrived in town and you don't have time to help him/her to learn the language, find a job or continue his/her studies?
 - Your child or your partner have difficulties to adapt to his/her new life.
